this book revises the conventional wisdom about the anglo japanese relationship in the late nineteenth century that these two countries were bound by mutual sympathy and common interests and therefore the common ground which led to the signing of the anglo japanese alliance in 1902 had already existed in the 1880s such understandings fail to take account of the fact that the qing dynasty of china had emerged as the strongest regional power in east asia by reasserting its influence as the traditional suzerain of the region in the years prior to the first sino japanese war the british and the japanese governments clearly recognised that it would become difficult to maintain their interests in east asia if they antagonised the qing by challenging its claim of suzerainty over korea it was difficult for them to come to closer terms when their priority before 1894 was to maintain good relations with china and when they were also experiencing numerous diplomatic difficulties with each other

Century of White Worship 2017-07-03

sun yat sen once famously proclaimed the 21st century will be the chinese century but i say the 21st century is the century of white worship as the chinese and east asian in general become more wealthy which always means more interactions with westerners more well educated which means more westernized and more civilized which means more docile more submissive and more feminized and which also means more infatuated and indebted to the superior western civilization for being civilized is being western civilized east asian women will become more liberated more successful and more independent and which in turn means that east asian women will become more powerful and will have more voice in the daily workings of east asian politics economy and public discourse but east asian women will always regard white men as the most superior men most suitable for mating so that means despite of all the progress wealth and power that east asia accrues east asian women will always favor white men over east asian men and in fact this trend will just exacerbate in the 21st century as east asian men become more civilized more passive and more insufferably effeminate the sexual biology of females dictates that women everywhere desire more manly men so then well does that not imply that in the end white men will be the true beneficiaries of this newly discovered east asian wealth does that not imply that white men will still be the most celebrated most highly desired men does that not imply that despite of all the clamor about the 21st century being the chinese century the 21st century will actually become the century of white men and east asian women or to put it more bluntly the century of white worship for who else worship white men as feverishly as fervently and as earnestly as east asian women before i proceed further let me clarify some terminology when i speak of east asian cultures i really mean sinic cultures that is those that have been ingrained and influenced by confucian ideologies such as but not limited to mainland chinese hong kong chinese taiwanese korean japanese singaporean and those fragments of the chinese diaspora in south east asian countries such as the philippines indonesia malaysia thailand and also of numerous western countries such as canada america new zealand and australia so when i speak of east asian i really mean sinic which really means chinese but in our modern terminology chinese takes on a more narrow meaning than what is actually intends part i confessions of submissive east asian women fragments of my life ode to white man prelude to the race of the future shadowgraphs unscientific postscript the new dawn part ii training of inferior east asian women a secret romance confession of inferior asian meat the secret diary of tiny broken jade a resume confession of an asian cum bucket racial inferiority begets feminine superiority training of asian women the adventures of professor mr white in asia confession of an asian sow chinese female training by mistress right lin confession of mizuki great noontide part iii philosophy of white man worship a critique of asian misogyny white man is god peripatetic aphorisms biological reality of race beauty of white power white god and chink part iv my sexual submission to white power a chink cunt s need to be used i dream of a world without asian men the joy of interracial breeding asian women s sexual liberation why asian women love white men the ghost of iris chang speaks this collection of work by leading scholars investigates the impact of the globalization process on some selected asian economies and societies with particular focus on the role of institutional factors such as labour unions or workers associations case studies are presented on labour management relations at the workplace that have evolved to cope with globalization the cases describe labour institutions in the society as a social force that acts as a catalyst for societal democracy and for industrial democracy at the workplace these cases provide descriptions of the changes in the management s stance and approaches towards labour unions in the selected countries as well as at the organizational level over the last three decades when much of the industrialization process has occurred in asia a case study approach which enhances analytical and problem solving skills of students a focus on the impact of globalization process in the east and southeast asia which is becoming more significant in the new economy prepared by local asian research scholars

The Social Sciences in the Asian Century 2015-09-30

in this collection of essays we reflect on what it means to practise the social sciences in the twenty first century the book brings together leading social scientists from the asia pacific region we argue for the benefit of dialogue between the diverse theories and methods of social sciences in the region the role of the social sciences in addressing real world problems the need to transcend national boundaries in addressing regional problems and the challenges for an increasingly globalised higher education sector in the twenty first century the chapters are a combination of theoretical reflections and locally focused case studies of processes that are embedded in global dynamics and the changing geopolitics of knowledge in an increasingly connected world these reflections will be of global relevance

Civilization and Empire 2009-02-02

this book critically examines the influence of international society on east asia and how its attempts to introduce civilization to barbarous polities contributed to conflict between china and japan challenging existing works that have presented the expansion of european international society as a progressive linear process this book contends that imperialism along with an ideology premised on civilising barbarous peoples played a central role in its historic development considering how these elements of international society affected china and japan s entry into it shogo suzuki contends that such states envisaged a janus faced international society which simultaneously aimed for cooperative relations among its civilized members and for the introduction of civilization towards non european polities often by coercive means by examining the complex process by which china and japan engaged with this dualism this book highlights a darker side of china and japan s socialization into international society which previous studies have failed to acknowledge drawing on chinese and japanese primary sources seldom utilized in international relations this book makes a compelling case for revising our understandings of international society and its expansion this book will be of strong interest to students and researcher of international relations international history european studies and asian studies

why is it that we so readily accept the boundary lines drawn around nations or around regions like asia as though they were natural and self evident when in fact they are so mutable and often so very arbitrary what happens to people not only when the borders they seek to cross become heavily guarded but also when new borders are drawn straight through the middle of their lives the essays in this book address these questions by starting from small places on the borderlands of east asia and looking outwards from the small towards the large asking what these minor pasts tell us about the grand narratives of history in the process it takes the reader on a journey from renaissance european visions of tartary through nineteenth century racial theorising imperial cartography and indigenous experiences of modernity to contemporary debates about big history in an age of environmental crisis

a philosophical novel on bdsm interracial love dominate white men and submissive east asian women relationships the first part through a semi autobiographical confession deals primarily with the philosophical aspects of interracial bdsm relationships between dominate white men and submissive east asian women as well as establishing albeit incompletely the general weltanschauung of a natural order of race and for which the second part further elaborates by offering a more panoramic purview through confessions historical artifacts and memoirs mostly from the perspectives of submissive east asian women and which that is hoped will bring about a complete weltanschauung what is related in this book is the reality of the next two centuries what is described is what is already happening and still to come and what can no longer come any differently that every white man shall have asian women as his wives girlfriends concubines pleasure slaves and meat urinals as the natural progression of the world as inevitable as the river that flows into the ocean however restlessly violently that wants to reach its destination that no longer can stop and that is afraid to stop this fact and this reality this future speaks even now in a hundred signs its destiny announces itself on every street corner and yet some refuse to hear its music but it will have reached a point when people will no longer be able to delude themselves as i have said hundreds of times economic power as an element of soft power will not translate into hard power and feminine superiority will not thereby transubstantiate into masculine superiority therefore it is imperative inevitable that this trend will continue to move forward headlong unabated by any tortured tension that might grow with it from decade to decade asian women therefore must always submit to white men s will and do them all possible honor and any asian woman who behaves differently is worthy not only of severe censure but of harsh punishment i consider that in my judgement all those asian women who are other than agreeable kindly and compliant to white men should be harshly and rigidly disciplined through corporal punishment until she prostrates on the ground begging for mercy from her lord her white god for a good horse and a bad spurs are required for a good asian woman or bad the rod is required all asian women are by nature pliant and yielding and hence for those who step beyond their permitted bounds the rod is required to punish their transgressions and in order to sustain the virtues of other asian women who practice restraint the rod is required to encourage and frighten them an asian woman must know that she is born to serve and worship her white man as her governor her lord and her god and she must learn to love her white man as her own dear life the new dawn of mankind is here and white man is that divine sun and asian woman is his emulous moon as the glorious sun rises from the east he must kill the submissive moon who is already humiliated and defeated the supreme sun will once again cast his light onto this world and he will also cast a long shadow over the subjugated moon
